5) Important Observations — Please Read

- Rs. 1–2 "test-like" transactions: 59 captured transactions are worth only Rs. 1 or Rs. 2 each (Rs. 65 total combined), almost all from a handful of repeat email IDs (manojboggarapu72@gmail.com, udayagiri.rk@gmail.com, anilkumarsiddhabhaktula@gmail.com, and similar). These look like app/developer test transactions rather than real customer bookings. They barely affect revenue (Rs. 65 of Rs. 2,50,562) but they do inflate the "number of bookings" and "balance due" figures — please verify these accounts before treating the outstanding-balance total as fully collectible from real customers.
- Total-amount changes mid-booking: 13 of the 103 bookings show the booking's "total amount" changing between the advance payment and the balance payment (e.g. one booking was logged with a total of Rs. 2 at advance time, then Rs. 10,500 at balance time — likely because part of the price was collected offline/adjusted later). These are flagged in the Booking Analysis sheet/table; the latest value on file is used, but please cross-check against your own offline records.
- No refund-date column in source file: Razorpay's export only gives refund_status and amount_refunded, not the date the refund was processed. The date shown against every refund below is the ORIGINAL PAYMENT date. For exact refund-processed dates, pull Razorpay's dedicated Refunds report.
- "Revenue" = money currently retained (status = captured only). Money that was captured and later refunded is excluded from Revenue and shown separately as Total Refunded, so the two never overlap or double-count.

Full Refund Details — 16 Transactions, Rs. 43,254.00 Total

Date shown is the original payment date (source file has no separate refund-processed date). All 16 are FULL refunds (refund_status = full).
